Words of Encouragement from Professional Bodies of Malaysia

The development of the Occupational Safety and Health industry is very fast. So the number of skilled manpower in this field are in a very high demand. The courses offered in this field in City-U is very much in-line with the current requirements of the industry.

Dato' Ir. Mohtar Musri

Director General, Department of Occupational Safety & Health Malaysia (2017)

Students from City-U have the capabilities, the much needed knowledge and talent in this growing industry. At the same time, the ability can be applied if they are planning to pursue their studies in the next level.

Ar. Mohd Zulhemlee An

President of the Association of Malaysian Architects (2015)

Education coordination between ACCA and City-U benefits the accounting students in this institution. Students in City-U are granted 7 exceptions out of the 14 subjects to be taken to obtain ACCA accreditation.

David Chin

Chairman of ACCA Malaysia (2016)

The field of information technology now requires graduates who understand their functions thoroughly. Of course, the outstanding students in this course will be in demand of any company. I believe that City-U graduates can also prove their worth.

Augustine Chan

Microsoft Authorized Education Reseller Program Manager

High quality and competitiveness is one thing I can see in City-U students. The quality of the students who are undergoing our industrial training programme is very good. So we do not hesitate to continue absorbing them as our employees here.

Prithipal Singh

Chief Executive Officer of Jet Asia (2007-Present)

I can say that students from City-U demonstrate good working quality. Even though they have just completed their studies, they are not clumsy and the way they work also shows that they have been trained very well at the institution before entering the real world of work life.

Minizar Francis Nordin

Chief Medical Technology of Kelana Jaya Medical Centre

The ability of City-U learners in some ways has convinced our customers that each of the designs and creations has its own significance. Thus, the City-U graduates are in-line with the widespread demands of the industry.

Ar. Jeffery Cheah

Principal and Managing Director of Syarikat Seni Bina Zone (1993-Present)

City-U students undergoing industrial training in my company are highly capable, able to work independently and are able to meet the demands of this industry in general.

Ir. Johan Zakaria

Director of Syarikat Johan Setia Perunding (M) Sdn. Bhd. (2000-Present)
